Administrative history / Biographical sketch

---

Note

Leanna Neal received her B.A at York University and a bachelor's degree in education from the University of Toronto. She completed a Masters of Education (2006) from Nipissing University. Leanna currently teaches dramatic arts at a secondary school in Orillia. In addition to her professional life, she volunteers in schools and community theatres and served as a regional representative for the Council for Drama and Dance in Ontario. Leanna is married with three children and currently resides in Midland, Ontario.

Custodial history

Prior to their transfer to Guelph Public Library Archives, the records were in the custody of Leanna Neal.

Scope and content

---

Fonds consists of Guelph Little Theatre programme guides, photographs of theatre facilities, notes on the theatre's history, constitution and by-law records, president's reports, and reviews created and or accumulated by Leanna Neal during the course of her research activities into the theatre's history. Also included is an audio cassette and transcribed interview with Keith Slater.

Fonds is arranged by subject.
