

FINDING AID 3716

FONDS 3716
MICHAEL RIORDON FONDS

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA

Accession Number 1992.072C

MICHAEL RIORDON FONDS. –1988-1989. –107 audio cassettes.

Michael Riordon (b. 1944) is a Canadian author, documentary maker and teacher responsible for authoring The First Stone: Homosexuality and the United Church. The book is about the United Church's 1988 ruling Membership Ministry and Human Sexuality concerning the ordination of homosexual ministers.

Fonds contains audio cassettes of interviews, reports and sermons collected by Michael Riordon for The First Stone: Homosexuality and the United Church 1988-1989.

Copyright: Interviews with persons identified by only pseudonyms are not to be copied. Interviews with other persons may be copied for private research only. Those wishing to obtain a copy of a tape to be used in a broadcast must have the written permission of Michael Riordon.

See BX 9883.1. H65 R56 1990 for copy of The First Stone: Homosexuality and the United Church.

Acc. No.	Box-File	Title	Date(s)
92.072AV	1-107	audio cassettes	1988-1989